VISIT Midhurst and...
Discover the perfect blend of town and country

The historic market town of Midhurst holds a unique position at the heart of the South Downs National Park.

Stay and explore

There’s plenty to explore in the town or you can use Midhurst as your base to visit the many other attractions in the area or simply to enjoy the great outdoors. There’s an excellent selection of places to stay, from pretty B&Bs to luxurious spa hotels and lots in-between. To see what’s on go to visitmidhurst.com for up-to-date event listings.

Mix the old and the new

While beautiful old buildings greet you at every turn, modern Midhurst offers the latest trends in shopping and eating.

Eat, drink and be merry

The South Downs are something of a treasure trove for lovers of good food. The Midhurst area in particular boasts many award-winning producers, vineyards and independent breweries. You’ll also find everything from chic cafés and restaurants to the best country pubs.
EAT & DRINK
and be merry

The farmland of the South Downs is a fantastic resource and one that our many local producers put to good use. Thanks to their efforts, the area is rapidly becoming a foodie’s delight!

Delicious delights

Midhurst boasts a traditional, family-run butcher and a charming delicatessen as well as shops selling real ales and fine wines, locally-made ice creams, great cakes and inspirational baking supplies. You can eat al fresco in the recently refurbished Market Square, enjoy cream teas in medieval surroundings and make the most of everything from Spanish tapas through to modern British fine dining.

Outstanding country pubs

Expect gardens with stunning views of the Downs in summer, cosy log fires in winter and landlords who keep great cellars and serve fabulous food that makes the most of locally sourced ingredients.

Just outside town

With a strong focus on locally sourced produce, the award-winning Cowdray Farm Shop and Café sells an array of estate-reared meat, artisan cheeses and charcuteries. After enjoying a browse in the farm shop, pop next door to the café for coffee, home-made cakes and freshly produced meals.
SLEEP
places to rest your head

Midhurst may have played host to Kings, Queens and A-list celebrities but there’s accommodation in and around town to suit budgets large and small.

In Midhurst

Take your pick from stylish self-catering accommodation and elegant B&Bs through to luxurious accommodation at The Spread Eagle Hotel, one of the oldest buildings in town. Whatever your style you’re bound to find something that is ‘just you’. For the adventurous there are yurts, shepherd huts, safari tents and more!

Out of town

Indulge yourself at Park House Hotel & Spa (complete with golf course, pool and tennis courts) or take your pick from country pubs with cosy rooms and tranquil rural B&Bs. There are also self-catering cottages and apartments to suit all budgets.

Four legs as well as two!

The South Downs are perfect for dog walking so it’s no surprise there’s plenty of dog-friendly accommodation.

SHOP
an independent streak

Take a stroll along West Street, Red Lion Street, Church Hill, Knockhundred Row and North Street and you’ll discover a wealth of independent retailers. The result is a vibrant shopping experience; great quality, fantastic diversity and establishments that exceed your expectations at every turn.

The traditional and the eclectic

Take your pick from design classics or outstanding vintage and retro finds across a full range of homewares, fabrics and accessories, as well as unique gifts and furniture sourced from all over the globe. There are also women’s fashion boutiques and jewellers offering the best in contemporary design alongside watch and clock repair specialists where you can often glimpse the experts at work.

Walk, cycle, ride....

If you’re inspired by the environment to walk, cycle or ride in the area, there are shops that can set you up for that as well.

Midhurst makes the perfect base to get out and explore the beautiful South Downs National Park.

The South Downs Way

This iconic National Trail runs just a few miles south of Midhurst, and offers walkers, horse riders and cyclists breath-taking, panoramic views over the South Downs countryside and out to the English Channel.

Incredible Wildlife

On open chalk grassland, wild flowers like the honey-scented musk orchid and horseshoe vetch thrive, attracting clouds of butterflies in the summer, including the glorious Adonis Blue. Midhurst, Woolbeding, Iping and Stedham Commons are all nearby and are home to unique heathland with wide horizons and intimate, secluded places. You might also see rare birds such as the nightjar and woodlark, as well as reptiles and insects (like the long-horned beetle) that thrive in the heather and gorse.
Enjoy a two-course lunch in the hotel restaurant for just £10.

Valid until 30th Nov 2017. Monday to Friday only. Terms & conditions apply, please ask for details when booking.

Charm, character & warmth

One of England's oldest coaching inns, the 15th century Spread Eagle Hotel & Spa blends traditional charm and contemporary comfort, offering fine dining and luxury spa facilities.

Nestled in the heart of Midhurst’s old town it is the perfect base to explore the South Downs.

Get out and about....

Walk the South Downs Way or discover the freedom and exhilaration of exploring the area by bicycle or on horseback. Play golf at Cowdray Park Golf Club or Park House Hotel & Spa. Try your hand at hot-air ballooning or discover the challenge of clay pigeon shooting.

Experience the beauty of the River Rother while fly fishing or take a guided twilight wildlife tour.

Take it indoors

Bad weather could be the perfect excuse to treat yourself to a beauty treatment or a spa day or there are yoga, Pilates and meditation classes available. For the energetic, the Grange Centre offers squash and badminton courts, drop-in exercise classes and a well-equipped gym or there’s an indoor climbing wall at Midhurst Rother College that’s open to the public. Alternatively, take a tour of one of the local wineries or artisan breweries or visit some of the area’s great museums or galleries.

Discover polo

Cowdray Park Polo Club is recognised worldwide as the home of British polo.

The season lasts from late April until September and the highlight is the Gold Cup for the British Open Polo Championship, held through June - July. Spectator entry starts from just £5/head (U12s free).
